Good Shepherd Australia New Zealand (GSANZ)

Our three-year strategy outlines the world we want to see and our role advancing in it. It also speaks to the positive impact we will deliver to support women, girls and families to be safe, secure, strong and connected. We are committed to tackling the issues of our time which adversely affect them. We work to advance equity and social justice and support our communities to thrive.

We seek to increase economic participation and wellbeing, to build resilience, improve safety and bring about system change. We offer microfinance programs and products, financial counselling and coaching, family violence support, family and youth programs, playgroups, education programs and community houses. These services are complemented by research and advocacy to address the underlying structural causes of injustice, exclusion, and inequality.

Role Purpose

The Financial Independence Hub (FIH) is co-designed by people with lived experience of domestic and family violence, it is a national, innovative program developed by Good Shepherd in collaboration with The Commonwealth Bank of Australia. The FIH supports people who are post-crisis who have experienced financial abuse as a result of domestic and family violence (DFV).

The Financial Independence Hub program team are trauma informed with a deep understanding of lived experiences of financial abuse, the contextual environment and service system, combined with sound financial knowledge. Team members assist people by providing tailored support, referrals and coaching that enables financial independence and achievement of personal financial goals.

The Financial Independence Hub Coordinator is the central point of contact for participants and stakeholders involved in the program. This role significantly contributes to the effective and client centered running of the hub. The Hub Coordinator ensures participants are informed about the program and assesses with the participant the appropriate pathway including intake, assessment, coach allocation and referral pathways. The Coordinator supports participants throughout their engagement in the Hub including warm referrals, research, budgeting and service navigation aligned with the Financial Independence goals identified through Financial Coaching.

Key Responsibilities

- Receive and respond to phone, email and face to face (where feasible) enquiries from participants and referral agencies. Accurately describe the program and assess a person's eligibility for the Hub and other referral pathways in the broader service system.
- Use participant-directed practices that show respect for the expertise of people with lived experience of financial abuse. Demonstrate strategies to empower and support the person to discuss their goals and challenges and only require them to share their story if they elect to.
- Deliver services in a modality that meets the needs of the participant including by phone, video or in person (where feasible) and engaging services such as translators.
- Understand trauma; be able to lead a conversation through a trauma informed lens and have empathy for the challenges faced by people who have experienced family violence.
- Be able to recognise financial risk factors, prioritise and facilitate referrals to other services such as financial counselling.
- In collaboration with the participant, make decisions about the pathway of support and determine whether the person is ready to engage in coaching, requires support from the Coordinator or would benefit from another service.
- Match and allocate participants to a Financial Coach, considering the participants needs and availability with the coaches skill set and capacity. Arrange the initial coaching sessions and support subsequent sessions by providing reminders and a point of contact for participants.
- Provide ongoing support to hub participants through the provision of support tasks that facilitate the participant taking action to achieve their financial roadmap goals; including developing budgets, warm referrals, research, advocacy and system and service navigation.
- Assist participants with applying for the Financial Independence Hub no interest loan product including the loan origination system and to share information as appropriate.
- Contribute to the promotion of the FIH including delivering FIH presentations and workshops either remotely or in person.
- Ensure high quality accurate record keeping adhering to privacy policies and procedures. Collect and enter participant information using the relevant database and contribute to reporting.
- Ensure that consultation with other services complies with privacy, consent and information sharing requirements.
- Collaborate with the team to contribute to continuous improvement of the program including the review, development and adaptations of the program including Living Lab and policies and procedures to enhance the FIH program.
- Use culturally sensitive practice, be aware of and adapt practice to support the diverse needs, background and identity of each individual respectfully and professionally.
- Comply with GSANZ policy, procedure and code of conduct.
- Other duties consistent with the position where required and/or requested by the supervisor.

This is a hybrid role with work from home, work from colocation sites and attendance at either the GS Cairns or Southport offices.
